Albany-Tula Alliance welcomes Russian “Pilgrims”

Fans of Russian history and shipbuilding encouraged to visit!

July 20, 2020 – (Albany, NY)

With the support of Albany-Tula Alliance and New Russia Cultural Center, a traveling Russian museum is in town for touring! The “Pilgrim” (Lodya, in Russian) is a handcrafted, wooden, three-mast replica sailing ship that has circumnavigated the world only to dock briefly in Albany for tours and photos. The floating museum includes rare treasures of significance to Russian heritage and history. Captain Sergey Sinelnik would be honored to invite you aboard and expand on his brave adventures across oceans and seas.

The Pilgrim's sail demonstration is scheduled for Tuesday, July 21 at 11am.

Daily tours are free but you must register for a ticket (Don't forget your PPE mask while onboard!): www.eventbrite.com/e/russian-replica-ship-tickets-113897484442
